

Ferrum College UMW Day Saturday, June 2, 2018

Wear your black and gold and prepare for a day filled with JOY as we celebrate the Ferrum College and United Methodist Women "Connexion." Our day opens with

Experience the JOY
Ferrum College

Ferrum College Fresh Wind Gospel Choir members and continues with 1 Accord as we bask in the sound of southern gospel and catch a glimpse of the early Methodist circuit riders (Dr. Gary Zieglar) who roamed the hills spreading scriptural holiness. It was in this context and through the vision and efforts of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Virginia Annual Conference (Miss M. Lutie Roberts, secretary) that Ferrum Training School was born.

*"...God is answering our prayers and opening the way.
...We are all interested and anxious for some definite work to do."
(M. Lutie Roberts, Woman's Missionary Society, 1914.)*

The Ferrum College legacy is over 100 years young. On June 2, 2018 we will remember with interest and with anxious/joyful hearts we will celebrate. Our day will conclude with a welcome and reception from our 12th president, Dr. David Johns.
